2006 Brassfield Estate

Serenity

High Valley Appellation

• ESTATE BOTTLED •

Named for High Serenity Ranch, this wine is a delightful blend of 63% Sauvignon Blanc, 28% Pinot Grigio, 6% Gewurztraminer and 3% Semillon. Although the percentages may vary slightly from vintage to vintage, this wine shows the same lovely characteristics that have made this proprietary blend a crowd favorite every year. After fermenting in stainless steel tanks for 3 weeks, the 2006 Serenity displays forward aromas of red delicious apples, peach and fruit cocktail that continue as flavors on the palate along with pronounced mandarin orange perfumes. The soft, round mouth feel, along with a touch of sweetness, is perfectly balanced with the acidity.

AWARDS

- Best of Class, 2007 California State Fair Wine Competition
