

Our wines reflect the distinctiveness and diversity of their sites – from the elevated valley floor of High Serenity Ranch to the raw and remote Volcano Ridge Vineyard. Handcrafted by Winemaker Matt Hughes and Brassfield's winemaking team, in collaboration with acclaimed Consulting Winemaker David Ramey, our focus on sustainable farming, classic techniques, and purity of flavor produce fruit-driven, balanced, and delicious wines.

Our 2015 Serenity is inspired by the wines of Alsace, it's a Californian version of a Grand Cru from that region. The nose displays poached pear and baked apples with hints of lime and lemon curd. Wonderful floral aromas lift the underpinning of tropical fruits and honeyed lychee. This wine has a soft texture with a mineral laden finish.

WINE ENTHUSIAST

High Valley Appellation
High Serenity Ranch

Aromatically the wine offers seductive notes of Bing cherries, pencil shavings, dried red plums, and a hint of hay. The mouthfeel is classic Ramey: plush, round and silky-smooth. The forward fruit character of red raspberries and bright cherries are well supported by a finish of toasted bread, walnuts, and vanilla.

Volcano Ridge Vineyard

Rich and intense. The wine exhibits aromas of blackberries, fresh baked bread, stewed plums, and a touch of tar, giving way to flavors that are jammy, ripe and unctuous. The palate explodes with ripe blueberries, mixed berry tart, fresh tobacco leaf, and toasty vanilla notes.
